

Review of innovation measurement in South Africa

Prof D Labadarios
Executive Director: CESTII

Review of innovation measurement in South Africa

- An innovation is the implementation of a new or significantly improved product (good or service), or process, a new marketing method, or a new organisational method in business practices, workplace organisation or external relations.

(OECD, Oslo Manual, 2005)

Review of innovation measurement in South Africa

Its complexity is hidden in its apparent simplicity